

National Science Day

We celebrated National Science Day with great enthusiasm and excitement, bringing together students, teachers, and staff to honor the invaluable contributions of science to humanity. This year's theme, "Celebrating Science for a Sustainable Future," encouraged us to explore the wonders of science and recognize its role in shaping a better tomorrow. The day was filled with a variety of engaging activities that sparked creativity, knowledge, and scientific curiosity among student.

