CIRCULAR

Sub: Celebration of Independence Day in Govt., Govt. Aided and Recognised unaided Private Schools / Offices of Directorate of Education on 13.08.2022.

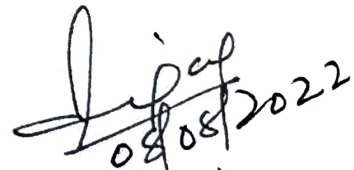

As the nation is celebrating 75th Year of Independence in the form of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav; initiatives like Deshbhakti curriculum in Delhi Govt. Schools have re-ignited the patriotism in our students. This is clearly evident from the overwhelming response and enthusiasm shown by our students for activities relating to Deshbhakti curriculum as well as Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav.

In order to further strengthen the patriotism among the students and staff, it has been decided that the celebrations of the Independence Day shall be held with full enthusiasm on 13.08.2022 in all Govt., Govt. Aided and Recognised Unaided Private Schools / Offices of Directorate of Education.

The holiday on account of second-Saturday which was to be observed on 13.08.2022 shall now be observed on 20.08.2022.

Further, all Heads of Schools shall ensure that the national flags received from DTTDC are distributed to every student by 13.08.2022 under the Har Hath Tiranga Campaign of Delhi Government.

This issues with prior approval of the Competent Authority.
